

Which Questions

Which questions pertain to choice-making. Sometimes it is stated explicitly e.g., Which one do you want? Or it is implied, Do you want a cookie or a peach? Whenever the Wh- form is used, it is suggested that the which symbol be presented during the offering of a choice. Below is an example of a choice-making activity where the which symbol is displayed to help delineate that a choice is required.

